Dear Allen,

(P) Felt Applicant
Well
This is just a line to thank you in your absence for your letter of July 11, which arrived this morning. I hope that you will have a very good trip.

I shall look forward to hearing from you and, I hope, seeing you upon your return. I need hardly add that I hope that something along the lines that you suggested can be worked out and that I appreciate your interest so much.

Yours very sincerely,

Charlie

Dear Charlie;

In the rush to get off to Europe this week, I have not had a chance to develop anything which I feel would particularly interest you, but I want to have a further look at the matter when I get back, early in August, and you will hear further from me upon my return.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Allen,

It was so nice to see you in Washington on Monday and I appreciated very much all that you said.

You asked me to let you know the outcome of my talks at the State Department. I was asked to see people dealing with the Point IV Program and with United Nations Affairs. As regards the first I gathered the impression that everything is in a formative stage and that a good many matters will have to be clarified, including determination by Congress of what Agency is to administer the Point IV Program, before further progress can be made. As regards U.N. activities a suggestion was made to me of working on certain matters in the Department and I believe that they are going to follow this up further. However, I think that this is all rather tentative and that there are such factors as civil service, the new budget of the Department and similar considerations involved, which make any immediate decision or action unlikely.

As I mentioned to you one of the persons with whom I talked spoke of the long time involved in obtaining Security clearances - not less than three months. I expressed surprise at this and said that when I entered the United States Mission to the United Nations in 1948 the necessary clearance, which included an atomic energy clearance, had been obtained in less than a month. I think that what actually happened was that having obtained atomic energy clearance, the State Department waived further clearance

I have made out and am enclosing a curriculum vitae as you asked me to do.

I am ^{much} interested in what you mentioned on Monday. I think this letter gives you the information that you wanted; if not, I can, of course, amplify it. My best languages are French and German; my Spanish is only fair.

STAT This address will always reach me. The telephone number is

[REDACTED] and I expect to be in Newport over the coming weekend and the fourth of July, and to be intermittently there after that, ^{but more here than there,} until my plans develop. My telephone number there is

Dear Allen,

I have to be in Washington next Monday to see someone at the Department of State, and I am writing to ask whether I could see you on that day and what would be a convenient time and place. Would you be free for lunch?

I think that I should add that I am looking for something useful to do, and if the answer lies in Washington I should want to avail myself of it. Knowing how much you are in touch with people and things, I would greatly appreciate having an opportunity to consult you and to obtain your views.

Yours very sincerely,
